To Whom It May Concern:

I have been asked to write a letter of recommendation for Mr. Lindsey Cartwright, who is a professional educator with the Windom Area Schools, ISD #177, Windom, MN. I have known Mr. Cartwright since 1992 when I came to this school district as the Superintendent of Schools. Due to the size of our school district and the many involvements we have in committees and other opportunities, I feel very qualified to recommend Mr. Cartwright, both professionally and personally.

Mr. Cartwright is one of our most active staff members when it comes to professional involvement. Over the time that I've been here, he has served on a number of committees to include: chair of local continuing education committee for six years; PER Advisory Committee; Gifted and Talented Committee; Staff Development Committee; and on the Graduation Standards site committee. In addition to this, he served as the local Education Minnesota Association president as well as serving his professional association on a number of regional committees.

Lindsey is active within our community, as well. He has served a number of years on the Zoning and Building Committee for the City of Windom. During his off hours, he's involved in his own construction business, having just completed the erection of a house, which he recently sold.

During the years I've served this district, I've come to rely upon Lindsey in a number of ways. He's extremely flexible in addressing situations. When we were unable to hire an Industrial Technology instructor a number of years ago, due to his construction and wood working background, I approached him with a request to go into the classroom for the year. He not only agreed but enthusiastically addressed the situation and he, as well as the students, had a fantastic year. This is especially gratifying due to Mr. Cartwright's background as an elementary classroom teacher. He has taught mostly fifth grade but most recently, is at the sixth grade level. He's extremely flexible and adaptable.

His devotion to students is always evident in everything he addresses at school. This devotion hasn't gone unnoticed as his peers, selected him in 1987, as the Windom Area Schools' Teacher of the Year. It gives me a great deal of pleasure to recommend Mr. Cartwright as a true professional in the field. Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions concerning his devotion to students or dedication to the profession.

Respectfully,

Dick Orcutt
Superintendent

Letter of Recommendation
For Board of Teaching, Lindsey Cartwright

A passionate and innovative teacher, a team player, and a strong willingness and desire to get involved are a few phrases that best describe the type of teacher and colleague Lindsey Cartwright is at our Windom Area Middle School. He devotes countless hours to his students, his coworkers and graciously supports and encourages a host of grade level, school wide, as well as community wide activities and organizations.

As a classroom Lindsey has and is continuing to develop a science curriculum that excites and engages our active middle school students. In their words, "I can't wait for science to see what experiment we get to do!" or "You should see what we did today in science!" Lindsey captures their interest and channels their energy into an understanding and appreciation of science. I have had the distinct pleasure of teaching with Lindsey for eleven years both at the fifth and sixth grade level. He has been a wonderfully encouraging, knowledgeable, and most importantly inspiring grade level partner.

Lindsey is sought out by school and community personal and organizations, because of his willingness and competence as a team player. He possesses positive leadership skills which encourage other members to become involved, while accomplishing a given task. I admire his sensitivity and awareness of others' ideas and feelings. Lindsey has a strong desire to resolve conflict in a nonconfrontational style. Both Lindsey's creative teaching style and his supportive involvement were recognized very early in his teaching career as his fellow teachers honored him as Windom's Teacher of the Year in 1987. Lindsey is an excellent team member and leader.

Lindsey Cartwright is not a person who sets back and watches others affect issues. He willing gets involved and strives to shape outcomes. He Co-chaired our WEA, he has been part of a local and regional Legislative teams, and has held various leadership responsibilities on a host of school and community organizations. He is presently participating in the community Arts group, his church, builders and building contractors, child policy making groups, and sports teams.

I would like to enthusiastically recommend Lindsey Cartwright for this position on the Board of Teaching. I feel that with Lindsey's positive rapport he would be an excellent contributing member to your board.

Respectfully,

RE: Application of Lindsey Cartwright for appointment to the Minnesota Board of Teaching

Dear Governor Pawlenty,

I write in support of the application from Lindsey Cartwright, a teacher from Windom, Minnesota, for your appointment to the Minnesota State Board of Teaching.

Mr. Cartwright is a career, elementary school teacher. Moreover he has for many years, been a voice in the wilderness, so to speak, in educational circles, considering his conservative persuasion. He would be a real asset on the Board of Teaching, helping to bring a much needed philosophical balance to both the Board and the Department. Lindsey Cartwright is also highly respected with-in his school district and our community for the dedication he consistently brings to his responsibilities.

I highly recommend that you appoint Lindsey Cartwright to serve on the Minnesota Board of Teaching. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Elaine Harder
State Representative, District 22B
