Biography & Intent

Dear Appointment Member,

My name is Tony Goulet. I am the owner and operator of Goulet Homes a residential builder in Central MN. My construction career spans nearly 35 years and is the platform for all my involvement in local, state and national associations that create change and progress in the housing industry.

A snapshot of my involvement is listed below.

1990- 2004

Central MN Builders Association: Various positions including President in 1996. Other designations included, Chair of Tour of Homes Committee and Chair of Local and Government Affairs

1995-2008

National Association of Home Builders: Various positions including voting Board Member Position as State Representative in 2003, Chairman of Construction Safety and Health Committee in 2002, and Task Force Member for NAHB Governance.

1995-2008

Builders Association of MN: State President in 2004, multiple committee involvements.

2004-2007

Quadriga Builders Insurance: Founder and Inaugural Chairman of the Board for Liability Insurance for Contractors.

All the service commitments listed have been a result of an agenda to have proactive changes and policy that promotes open doors and positive change for consumers and businesses. I am convinced that strong leadership in Minnesota's housing industry is necessary for the economy to stabilize itself. It is for this reason I am submitting this application.

The experiences I have had as a business owner and at the various local, state, and national associations have provided me with a strong foundation of insight. It is this kind of experience, along a strong work ethic, and a genuine commitment to the industry that would benefit the Minnesota Housing Board and the challenges it faces. I am for change and policy that work.

In addition to my building career, I am a Marine Veteran, a father, and a proud grandfather. Everything I have strived for in my career echoes the platform of Minnesota Housing. That is to have housing opportunity for Minnesotan's that enhances quality of life and fosters strong communities.

Thank you for your consideration.

Tony Goulet
