Brian McDaniel
Metropolitan Council Member
District 16

Metropolitan Council Member Brian McDaniel was appointed to the Council by Minnesota Governor Tim Pawlenty in September 2003. McDaniel represents District 16, which includes a southern slice of Eagan, all of Apple Valley, Rosemount, Hastings, Lakeville, Farmington and 18 rural communities in southern Dakota County.

McDaniel is the Legislative Director for the Speaker of the Minnesota House. He was previously Director of Fiscal Policy for the Minnesota Business Partnership. He has also served as administrator for the Minnesota House of Representatives Committee on Commerce, Jobs and Economic Development; an administrative law judge for the Department of Economic Security; and an attorney in private practice.

McDaniel serves on the Council's Community Development and Transportation Committees.

"The communities in my district in Dakota County are all in various stages of growth," said McDaniel. "Some are fully developed, others are very rural, and others are in between, and how this growth occurs and how these communities interact with each other is a big challenge. Transportation is also an important issue for this growing area."

"I'm excited about the renewed commitment this Council has made to work in cooperation with local communities," McDaniel added.

McDaniel has a B.A. in political science and economics from Minnesota State University in Mankato, and a J.D. from the William Mitchell College of Law.

Brian and his wife, Melinda, live in Apple Valley with their son, Joey, 2. McDaniel is a member of the Apple Valley Optimist Club, and he coaches basketball for the Minnesota Special Olympics. He enjoys sports and reading, especially true crime and history. He is active in local politics and the Republican Party.

To contact McDaniel, you may call 952-239-3612, or e-mail:
