URS CORPORATION, Minneapolis, MN

January 2003 to Present

Practice Group Manager – Environmental Resources

URS is a $10.1 billion, fully integrated engineering, construction and technical services organization with the capability to support every stage of the project life-cycle. Personally responsible for providing leadership and developing, implementing, directing an Environmental Management and Water Resources engineering consulting practice (staff of 30) within the upper Midwest region.

- Accountable for operations, administration, financial management, and business growth of the overall practice.
- Strategy development for a Water Resources practice focused on stormwater permitting and management, floodplain permitting and analysis, wetland delineation and mitigation, surface water discharge evaluation and permitting, total maximum daily load (TMDL) assessment, erosion control, and hydraulic/hydrogeologic studies/modeling.
- Technical oversight of an Environmental Management practice engaged in National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA)/environmental assessment (EA)/Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) evaluations and/or permitting of major projects, environmental due-diligence, contaminated media remediation, environmental compliance/data management systems, Brownfield redevelopment, process/environmental engineering, solid waste engineering studies and construction implementation, sustainability/corporate social responsibility, and construction environmental monitoring.
- Participated in, and facilitated multiple sessions with a wide array of environmental, financial, procurement and operations staff, as well as external accounting audit teams, in the creation of cross-departmental Environmental Management System (EMS) for an upper Midwest power supplier. Deliverables included procedures that defined a process for financial accrual and disclosure of environmental liabilities, ad valorem property tax credits for pollution control equipment, income tax credits for research and development, existing/new vendor auditing and contracting and environmental project management.
- Conducted Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) auditing to evaluate local business unit performance against corporate metrics. The audits involve facilitation of discussions with local senior managers and operations personnel, and included evaluation of performance in the areas of human resources and employee relations, green-house gas emissions and control, energy conservation and waste minimization.
- Technical Project Management of various community development initiatives. Scope of services have ranged from development of technical programs under USEPA Region V Brownfield Assessment pilot projects and grants (with an emphasis on neighborhood education and participation), to the assessment and cleanup of entire urban blocks and transportation corridors through the MPCA's VIC and VPIC programs. Received a 2005 Environmental Excellence Award from the Federal Highway Administration for one of these projects due to the overall success of the program.

- Liaison with internal civil engineering/design and planning practice leads as well as external URS offices and project partners in development and execution of seamless inter-disciplinary work programs.
- Implementation of corporate behavior-based safety and quality programs to achieve greater annual reduction in injuries, accidents and insurance claims.
- Responsible for developing and maintaining beneficial alliances and relationships with vendors and stakeholders.
- Achieved organic growth annually and increased field and office staff proportionately.
