Cover Letter or Other Helpful Information:

I have been an active participant in my organizations lawful gambling operations (a local Lions Club that manages Pulltabs and Bingo operations). I have also attended several annual conventions hosted by Allied Charities and understand the legal, operational, business partner, and consumer sides of this important revenue generating and regulated business.

I believe that my diverse business and technology consulting background, coupled with my civic non-profit board experience and previous gambling operation side experience makes me uniquely qualified as a board member.

I look forward to answering any questions you may have and becoming an asset to the Gambling Control Board.

Sincerely,

Kenneth A. Koch
