Dear Secretary Ritchie,

It is my honor to have been encouraged by the Director and the Associate Director of the Minnesota Higher Education Facilities Authority to apply for an appointment as a member of the Authority. Included with this official application form is my cover letter and a resume.

For nearly twenty years as a Bond Trustee (as an employee of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.) I have worked extensively with the Authority and its member schools on bonds issued by the Authority. Thus I am familiar with the Authority's mission, its value to the state of Minnesota and its exceptional good work. I have a strong interest in working with the members of the Authority's Board to help to continue to provide oversight for the public debt offerings of our state's private colleges and universities.

With my extensive experience as a Bond Trustee I have experience with the structure, documentation, due diligence and covenant requirements for all types of public debt. In addition to working on debt financings issued by the Minnesota Higher Education Facilities Authority, I have also worked on bonds issued by many other Higher Education Facilities Authorities throughout the country (e.g., Wisconsin, Nebraska, Illinois, Iowa, Washington, Oregon). In Minnesota I have worked closely with the "deal teams" for a large number of the Minnesota colleges and universities as they have prepared bond issues for public sale. I have visited their campuses, I have worked with their respective finance officers, I have attended the Authority's board meetings to hear the member schools review their debt proposals and I have attended the Authority's annual meetings.

I believe that my extensive background in working as a Bond Trustee and my twenty years of experience in working on bonds issued by the Minnesota Higher Education Facilities Authority would add value to the board. I hope that my experience and my sincere interest to serve on the Authority's Board will qualify me for an appointment. It would be my honor and privilege to serve as a board member for the four-year term. I very much appreciate the opportunity to be considered. Please contact me if there are any questions regarding my application or if anything additional is requested.

Kind regards,
Nancy Sampair
