PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Over the past 30 years, I have been fortunate to serve in every area of workers' compensation law from being an attorney representing injured workers and employers to serving as the Chief Judge of the Worker's Compensation Court of Appeals (WCCA). I believe I am the first person in the state of Minnesota to have served as a judge at so many levels of the Workers' Compensation system. This experience makes me appreciate how our system fulfills its mission of justice at all levels. I have served as: a settlement judge and chief settlement judge at the Department of Labor and Industry; a compensation judge and administration law judge at the Office of Administrative Hearings; and an appellate chief judge at the Workers' Compensation Court of Appeals. My experience and dedication lead me to care deeply about the quality of our justice system and equal access to the courts. I would humbly welcome continuing this important work through a reappointment in 2023.

EXPERIENCE

Chief Judge of the Workers' Compensation Court of Appeals | 2011 to present

- Proven track record of being open to all points of view, recognizing any bias or prejudice, and making informed and fair decisions.
- Established public record of written decisions intended to promote consistency and public knowledge about the application of Minnesota workers' compensation laws.
- Successful leadership of the WCCA's digital transformation as part of a uniform data management system that integrates our e-filing technology within the agencies and courts.
- Successful guidance of WCCA's public services from traditional paper-based operations and proceedings to new technology platforms.
- Effective operations management during Covid-19 including initiating a pause in all proceedings; reopening for filing motions, transitioning to Webex for oral arguments and collaborations on written decisions.

Workers' Compensation and Administration Law Judge | 1998-2011

State of Minnesota, Office of Administrative Hearings

- Conducted record hearings, made findings of fact, and applied relevant law on disputed issues in workers compensation cases.
- Heard complaints under the Fair Campaign Practice and Campaign Finance Act in a three judge administrative law panel and collaborated on writing follow-up decisions.

Chief Workers' Compensation Settlement Judge | 1994

State of Minnesota, Department of Labor and Industry

- Supervised twelve judges and administration of the Court, including budget preparation and key legislation tracking.

Workers' Compensation Judge | 1993-1998

State of Minnesota, Department of Labor and Industry

- Evaluated worker's compensation claims.
- Conducted settlement and administrative conferences and hearings.
- Made judicial determinations and issued orders involving procedure and substantive issues in workers' compensation claims.

Workers' Compensation Trial Attorney | 1987-1992

Larsen, Heck, Klimek & Powell

- Responsible for a case load of over one-hundred litigation workers' compensation cases.
- In charge of discovery, investigation, medical work-up, negotiations, settlement conferences, pretrial, trial, and appellate work on each case.
