S.F. No. 1087 – State Building Code and State Fire Code Waiver Process for Members of Recognized Tribes

Author: Senator Andrew Lang

Prepared by: Carlon Doyle Fontaine, Senate Counsel (651/296-4395)

Date: March 10, 2021

Section 1. Exemption for members of recognized tribes. Requires the state fire marshal to issue building-specific waivers for elements of the State Fire Code that conflict with a recognized tribe's religious beliefs, traditional building practices, or established teachings. Specifies the types of buildings for which waivers may be requested and waiver application requirements. Requires any building for which a waiver is granted to be in compliance with the State Fire Code before the building is sold or leased unless the prospective buyer or lessee obtains a waiver.

Section 2. Exemption for members of recognized tribes. Requires the commissioner of labor and industry to issue building-specific waivers for elements of the State Building Code that conflict with a recognized tribe's religious beliefs, traditional building practices, or established teachings. Specifies the types of buildings for which waivers may be requested and waiver application requirements. Requires any building for which a waiver is granted to be in compliance with the State Building Code before the building is sold or leased unless the prospective buyer or lessee obtains a waiver.
