Page 13, delete section 9 and insert:

"Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 116D.04, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. Review. Decisions A person aggrieved by a final decision on the need for an environmental assessment worksheet, the need for an environmental impact statement and, or the adequacy of an environmental impact statement may be reviewed by a declaratory judgment action in the district court of the county wherein the proposed action, or any part thereof, would be undertaken is entitled to judicial review of the decision under sections 14.63 to 14.68. A petition for a writ of certiorari by an aggrieved person for judicial review under sections 14.63 to 14.68 must be filed with the Court of Appeals and served on the responsible governmental unit not more than 30 days after the party receives the final decision and order of the responsible governmental unit. Proceedings for review under this section must be instituted by serving a petition for a writ of certiorari personally or by certified mail upon the responsible governmental unit and by promptly filing the proof of service in the Office of the Clerk of the Appellate Courts and the matter will proceed in the manner provided by the Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure. A copy of the petition must be provided to the attorney general at the time of service. Copies of the writ must be served, personally or by certified mail, upon the responsible governmental unit and the project proposer. The filing of the writ of certiorari does not stay the enforcement of any other governmental action, provided that the responsible governmental unit may stay enforcement or the Court of Appeals may order a stay upon terms it deems proper. Judicial review under this section shall be initiated within 30 days after the governmental unit makes the decision, and A bond may be required under section 562.02 unless at the time of hearing on the application for the bond the plaintiff petitioner-relator has shown that the claim has sufficient possibility of success is likely to succeed on the merits to sustain the burden required for the issuance of a temporary restraining order. Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the requirements for a temporary restraining order or a preliminary injunction pursuant to the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for district courts. The board may initiate judicial review of decisions referred to herein and the board or a project proposer may intervene as of right in any proceeding brought under this subdivision.

Application. This section applies to matters in which the final decision that is subject to judicial review is made on or after the effective date."

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Finance. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.
