STATE OF MINNESOTA

NINETY-FIRST LEGISLATURE

2019

Published By
The Secretary of the Senate

Introduction

The 2019 Session of the Ninety-First Legislature convened January 8, 2019, and was organized with the same caucus leadership and a new presiding officer.

Senator Paul E. Gazelka (R-Nisswa) continued as Majority Leader and Chair of the Committee on Rules and Administration.

Senator Thomas M. Bakk (DFL-Cook) continued as Minority Leader.

Senator Jeremy R. Miller (R-Winona) was elected President of the Senate.

Jeff R. Howe (R-Rockville) won a special election in District 13 on November 6, 2018, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Senator Michelle Fischbach. Senator Howe subscribed to the oath of office on December 11, 2018.

Senator Tony Lourey (DFL-Kerrick) resigned effective January 3, 2019, after being appointed Commissioner of the Department of Human Services by Governor Tim Walz. Jason Rarick (R-Pine City) won a special election on February 5, 2019, to fill the vacancy in District 11. Senator Rarick subscribed to the oath of office on February 13, 2019.

After the special elections, the political makeup of the 2019 Senate was 35 Republican and 32 DFL senators.

The 2019 session adjourned on the 59th legislative day, Monday, May 20, without the enactment of major appropriation bills needed to finance the operation of state government. Governor Tim Walz called a Special Session for May 25, and in a 21 hour, one day session 13 bills were passed and signed into law providing a balanced budget and funding for the operation of state government.

The Ninety-First Legislature will reconvene on Tuesday, February 11, 2020.
